

Publication	The Free Press Journal
Date	January 22, 2011
Pg No:	22

BHIS kids add Bollywood tadka to Shakespeare plays

Students of Billabong High International School (BHIS), Juhu, as part of their annual concert conducted 'Shakespearean Golmaal', a play based on Shakespearean literature presented in Bollywood Style. The plays were a journey behind the scenes of making of two films on stage The Merchant of Venice as 'Mumbai ka Baadshah' and Romeo and Juliet as 'Bhuvan and Bela'. Conceptualised by Lina Ashar, Founder & Chairperson, Kangaroo Kids Education, and scripted by Vishal Asrani and Jiji Simon Subi this Shakespeare reversal is an experiment with new structure of theatre to the ones which have been dramatised in the past.